Celebrating the God Who Loves Us

Over three nights, guided by the greatest story ever told, the story of the Prodigal Son, we will reflect together on what it means to be in a real relationship with God, one that allows for pain and loss and guilt and shame but one that allows for the experience of healing and forgiveness, homecoming and lasting gratitude as well. In the end, the mercy of God gets the last word.

”But while he (the Prodigal Son) was yet at a distance, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him” (Luke 15:20).

A popular English Professor at University of Portland and an accomplished author, Fr. Pat Hannon brings his considerable story-telling ability to his work.

Father Pat is a native of California and a graduate of the University of Portland, where he majored in political science and education. He joined Holy Cross after college and earned a Master of Divinity degree from Notre Dame before ordination to the priesthood. Father Pat has worked in pastoral roles as well as in education. For several years his ministry was at Notre Dame High School, a Holy Cross institution just outside Chicago. Among other duties he served as Principal of the school. More recently he has worked as an Associate Pastor at a Holy Cross parish near Colorado Springs, Co.
